Hello everyone. ~~For~~ Have you ever heard about the game you cannot stop playing in? For me, it is Minecraft. The concept of this game is creating new buildings (in creative mode) or surviving (in surviving mode). You can choose the mode by yourself and ~~to~~ create your own world. When you play the surviving mode, there are lots of dangerous NPC characters ~~around~~ near you, and you need to kill them before they do it. Minecraft can be played in VR studios, if it is a VR mode, and you can play in every where with your mobile phone or ~~computer~~ computer. Also, you can play with your friends in ONLINE mode, if you want. I'd like to recommend this game cause while you are playing, your design^{and logistic} skills ~~and so~~ are getting better. Firstly, I knew about it from the Internet.
