One of my favourite games is a Geometry Dash. It's not a new game, but it's great. ^{The} Characters there are cubes and to pass the level you must jump and fly using buttons. You play in a special area. This world is made of different figures and dots. To win you have to pass one level, to pass all the game you must end all the levels. There are a lot of them. This game is interesting for me but it's a bit annoying. Some people become angry if they can't pass the level for many times. I recommend to play this games if you are a calm person. If not, don't play this game. You will break you phone or yo your tablet. Geometry Dash is a special game with a lot of level and cube world. There are cube characters and different colours. Be calm and don't worry if you start to play. Good luck!
