He says that procrastination is a thief of time, in my opinion he means that when people procrastinate they are doing nothing, can't start what they need to do, just wasting their time and feeling bad about this.

~~In my opinion~~ Personally I agree with this statement, because procrastination is not just about not wanting to do ~~your work~~ what you need, or laziness, but a fear of hard work, avoidance of doing anything wrong or not seeing any profit of this work.

Procrastination is a daily problem for me personally, when I need to do project, presentation or any other ~~big~~ work that ~~needs much~~ takes much time, I feel that I can do it, but at the same time something un
